Rooted in Heritage, Reimagined for Today

Timeless Tales of Savista

Savista stands as a testament to Rajasthan's enduring spirit — a family home built by a senior official in Jaipur's princely administration, now transformed into a serene countryside retreat. Rooted in over a century of history, the estate has been thoughtfully restored by his descendants, blending architectural heritage with a contemporary vision of mindful hospitality.

Every aspect of Savista reflects a life philosophy shaped by simplicity, sustainability, and deep connection to place. The use of lime-plastered walls, reclaimed wood, traditional materials, and natural fabrics is not just aesthetic — it's a conscious choice, honouring ancestral ways while creating a space of quiet luxury.

Today, Savista invites guests into an environment where heritage lives on — not only in its walls and courtyards, but in its values, its rhythms, and the very soil it stands on.
